RULE OF CONDUCT FOR THE PLANNING COMMISSION MEETING

Please note that applause and/or cheering are not appropriate at Planning Commission

-  Speakers will be called to the podium by the Chairperson
-  The meeting minutes are recorded, so it is important for each speaker to state their name and address prior to making any comments, and to speak directly into the microphone. (If your part of a corporation, state company name and business interest)
-  All comments should be directed to the Planning Commission, not to the Staff or to the members of the audience.
-  For items where there are several people wishing to speak, the Chairperson may impose a time limit. Groups may designate a spokesperson.
-  After the hearing is closed, the discussion will be limited to the Planning Commission and Staff, unless someone is specifically called on by the Planning Commission Chairperson.

Order of Business for Agenda Item Consideration

1. Applications will be briefly introduced by a City staff member.
2. The applicant will be allowed to present their proposal. The Chairperson may impose a time limit.
3. Person's in favor of the application will be heard next and will be called to the podium by the Chairperson. If there are several people present who wish to speak, the Chairperson may impose a time limit. (If you represent a group, please state how many citizens you represent)
4. Person's opposed to the application will be heard next. If there are several people present who wish to speak, the Chairperson may impose a time limit. (If you represent a group, please state how many citizens you represent)
5. The applicant will be allowed to provide concluding statements. The Chairperson may impose a time limit on concluding remarks.

Cottonwood Heights Planning Commission

The Planning Commission is a voluntary citizen commission appointed by Cottonwood Heights City Manager with consent of the City Council and in accordance with City ordinance and state law. The Commission's duties are to make recommendations and decisions on applications and issues relative to land use within the City. The recommendations and/or decisions made are based on information received from field visits, public comment, public hearing presentations, applicant information, City staff review and recommendations, ordinance compliance and compatibility with the general plan. The Commission will make a recommendation to the City Council on general plan amendments, ordinance text amendments, and subdivisions of 10 or more lots. They make the final decision on site plans, conditional use applications, and subdivisions of less than 10 lots. Information presented for consideration becomes part of the public record.
